

THE ROCKERBOX NEWSROOM

Our content team - made up of experienced educators and journalists - sits in The Rockerbox Newsroom. They share a single mission: To engage every pupil in reading.

If you have pupils who are struggling to find their thirst for reading - contact the Newsroom with their specific special interests. If we're not already covering the topic, we'll do our best to produce additional articles they'll love.

Step 1: Click to complete this short form with your request

Step 2: Look out for a response within 3 working days

- Our content team will review your request and send a list of recommended articles for any requested topics or themes that match up with articles we've recently produced. They'll also let you know if, for whatever reason, it won't be possible to accept the request.

Step 3: Receive a timeframe for your requests

- Next, the team will make a plan to cover the topics and themes you've requested with timely and relevant articles. Your School Success Manager will be in touch to let you know when to expect the content to be live.

Step 4: You'll be notified when all of your requests go live!

- Your School Success Manager will track the progress of your requests and will let you know as soon as everything is live on our system. Please note that our content goes through a series of important steps so a request can take up to 8 weeks.

Step 5: Share the good news with the pupil in question and get them reading!
